

ABIGAIL L. LIEBESKIND
(301) 466-5322 | abigail.liebeskind@duke.edu

EDUCATION

Duke University School of Law Durham, NC
Juris Doctor expected, May 2013
Honors: David W. Ichel Scholarship, Inaugural Recipient
Activities: Association for Social Entrepreneurship and Innovation, VP of Projects and Webmaster
Intellectual Property and Cyberlaw Society

Duke University Durham, NC
Bachelor of Arts in Public Policy Studies, minor in Economics, May 2009
Publication: The Future of Music: Tensions at the Crossroads of Technology and Law. Duke Journal of Public Affairs, Spring 2009.
Activities: Duke Consulting Club, Community Consulting Co-Chair; Director of Professional Development
America Reads/America Counts, Tutor

EXPERIENCE

Duke University School of Law Durham, NC
Research Assistant to Professor Stuart Benjamin, Summer 2011

- Proofread and edited introductory and concluding chapters of forthcoming edition of telecommunications law casebook for citations and substance.
- Researched and identified instances of regulatory bootstrapping for a forthcoming article.

Duke University School of Law Durham, NC
Research Assistant to Professor John de Figueiredo, Summer 2011

- Analyzed categories of knowledge management practices, selected exemplary organizations, and drafted case studies highlighting challenges and lessons learned for inclusion in forthcoming book.

Center for Innovative Technology Herndon, VA
Research Analyst, Connect Team, January – July 2010

- Youngest member of business consulting team, which focused on assisting large-scale consumers of technology to identify and utilize innovations created in start-up companies.
- Completed Implementation Plan for Department of Defense to facilitate use of mobile phones for education, training, and combating terrorism.
- Conducted corporate case studies and analyzed existing and potential utilization of Web 2.0 to enhance knowledge management across the Department of Defense.

Atlantic Media Company Washington, DC
Intern, New Business Development: National Journal Group, Summer 2009

- Successfully launched 3121, a professional network for Capitol Hill staffers by coordinating marketing team, web development team, sponsors and users.

Edelman U.S. Washington, DC
Intern, Corporate Affairs, Summer 2008

- Achieved client objectives for this full service global public relations firm by writing pitch letters, press releases, media advisories and fact sheets.

Creative Class Group Washington, DC
Intern, Summer 2007

- Increased employer's website and blog traffic 58% by revising style and content.
- Wrote proposals and assisted with presentations for corporate clients.
- Co-edited, compiled and fact-checked founder Richard Florida's book, Who's Your City.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Attended O'Reilly Media Web 2.0 Conference and Expo 2010 and Future of Music Coalition Policy Summit 2011.
Additional experience at U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (Summer 2006).